

Horse Riding Disclaimer

Although we have provided riding for years here at Treworrey without interruption, horses can be ill or lame just like people. In no event will Treworrey or its proprietors be liable to provide riding, though we will do our very best to do so. For example should we be struck with horse lameness, flu viruses or instructor illness etc. we might be unable to offer riding. Please note that riding options and prices are subject to change. Please contact us to confirm the current choices. Riding Options & Prices are explained in detail with terms and conditions on the Riding Request Form which is available on the website. Please don't hesitate to contact us if you would like to discuss the most suitable options for you or your family before booking.
